YOUR GUIDE TO LIVING WITH ROOMMATES

DISCUSS COMMON ISSUES

Overnight Guests

Unannounced, too frequent, or disrespectful behavior.

Noise Levels

Volume levels of music/TV or loud guests.

Food

Sharing, taking, or cooking.

Common Cleaning

Sharing supplies, different definitions of clean, taking out trash, washing dishes, or clutter.

Policy Violations

A roommate violating policies within the apartment.

Temperature In Apartment

Deciding on a temperature that works for everyone.

IT'S OK TO COMPROMISE

Remember that four roommates means four ways of living. You should be prepared to adjust your expectations according to your roommates and vice-versa. For example, if you think the trash should be taken out twice a week, but your roommates think once every two weeks is okay, a good compromise could be to take out the trash once a week. Willingness to compromise will make living with roommates more enjoyable.

SHOW RESPECT

No matter the differences between roommates, you all should respect one another. Keep in mind that different does not mean bad. In fact, living with roommates from various backgrounds is a great opportunity to learning about different lifestyles, opinions, and cultures. If you're committed to respecting those around you, you can live harmoniously with anyone.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Remember to take responsibility for your own space. You and your roommates have to be comfortable with everything that goes on in the apartment. At the beginning of the year, your RA will help you complete a Roommate Agreement Form with all of your roommates. This is a required step to live in University Housing and will help start the conversation among roommates about personal living preferences and how to best use the space.

COMMUNICATION IS KEY

For a successful and healthy roommate relationship, the lines of communication must be open. You can't expect your roommates to read your mind, so be clear about your expectations, feelings, and differences.

KNOW THE RULES

You have a unique opportunity to live in a community with other students. To ensure that this is a positive experience for everyone, make yourself familiar with our community policy book. You can find this at housing.unomaha.edu.

MEET YOUR RAs AND PROSTAFF

RESIDENT ASSISTANT (RA)

A full-time student leader who lives on campus and helps guide the experience of the residents within their building and in the housing community.

Your RA is responsible for:

- Creating fun events for residents
- Helping residents meet new people or learn new things
- Making sure that the housing community stays safe and inclusive
- Constructing amazing door decorations and bulletin boards

You can find your RA:

- Hanging out in their room with their door open
- Working at their desk in the clubhouse
- Walking around housing to check in on things
- Posting signs that inform residents about fun upcoming events

Talk to your RA if you:

- Have a question
- Are interested in getting more involved
- Have a great idea for an event
- Have a concern about your housing experience
- Just need someone to listen
- Want to get to know an amazing peer

RESIDENT MANAGER (RM)

A full-time professional staff member who lives on campus to help make the Housing and Residence Life experience engaging, educational, and inclusive.

Your RM is responsible for:

- Supervising the RA staff
- Adjudicating any conduct violation incidents
- Advising Residence Hall Council
- Representing Housing and Residence Life to the campus and community
- Getting to know residents

You can find your RM:

- Hanging out with residents
- Meeting with RAs
- Working on housing initiatives in their offices
- Walking around housing to talk to all of their residents

Talk to your RM if you:

- Need help understanding housing or campus policies
- Are looking for new ways to get involved
- Have concerns about your experience that your RA cannot address
- Want to make a new friend who is really cool and gives great advice

ROOMMATE TIP

You and your roommate(s) will be different. Keep a positive attitude and an open mind.

ROOMMATE TIP

Talk face-to-face with your roommates whenever possible. Leaving notes or sending texts or emails is not as effective.

ADDRESSING AN ISSUE

Unfortunately, conflicts are almost inevitable when four individuals share one space. Addressing it properly will help resolve issues and ideally prevent future occurrences. Below are steps for addressing an issue with your new roommate(s).

COMMUNICATE YOUR EXPECTATIONS

A roommate can't change a behavior if they don't know that there is a concern. It's your responsibility to talk face-to-face with your roommate(s). Let them know what the concern is and try to reach a common understanding or compromise.

TALK TO YOUR RESIDENT ASSISTANT

If you've discussed the issue with your roommate(s), but the issue continues, you should let your RA know. Staff members are trained to help you resolve conflicts by assisting in a mediated conversation. Mediation offers roommates a safe space to discuss any issues. Your RA will help you and your roommates come to a solution and create a plan of action.

SOMETIMES YOU NEED A LITTLE SPACE

If all of your attempts at resolving roommate issues have been unsuccessful, you can request a new room. Keep in mind that you can't request that a roommate be moved from your current apartment. New room requests can only be processed if a different room is available and has been approved by the HRL staff. This is a last resort for roommates in conflict. The fee to switch rooms is $50.00.

OUR COMMITMENT TO STUDENT SAFETY

STUDENTSAFETY.UNOMAHA.EDU

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PUBLIC SAFETY

- Protect life and property
- Provide building and exterior patrol
- Investigate criminal offenses
- Control the University Access System
- Provide emergency first-aid response for on-campus incidents

TEXT MESSAGE ALERTS

UNO has an emergency alert messaging system to provide timely warning for critical situations that may affect the university community. Messages are delivered in a variety of ways from overhead pages, PC alerts, email, social media alerts, and text messages. UNO uses text messaging to reach students wherever they are when alerts are sent. This is a free service which UNO students are automatically enrolled in, but have the option to opt out of.

BLUE LIGHT EMERGENCY PHONES

Blue light emergency phones are located across campus. Use the phone to report emergencies or contact Public Safety for other assistance.

BIAS ASSESSMENT AND RESPONSE TEAM

UNO's Bias Assessment and Response Team (BART) gathers information about non-emergency bias incidents and supports those who have become or witnessed someone become a target of an act of bias. It is also BART's goal to increase opportunities for communication and restorative justice for students, staff, and faculty.

BEHAVIORAL REVIEW TEAM

As an interdisciplinary partnership, the university's Behavioral Review Team (BRT) is the network of existing resources for prevention and early intervention of campus situations. These situations can sometimes involve students experiencing distress or engaging in harmful or disruptive behaviors. In support of UNO students, the BRT develops intervention and support strategies, offers case coordination, regularly reviews incidents, and recommends actions that address the situation. The BRT exists to make sure that students are not only safe, but also thriving on campus.

SPEAK UP

We want every student to feel valued and respected. Your experience as a member of the university community matters to us. As a student, you have many resources to report and share your concerns. Remember, we're here to listen. If you have experienced or believe you have experienced discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and/or sexual violence, you have resources and reporting options.

DO'S AND DON'TS OF SAFETY

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

- Keep your MavCARD with you at all times.
- Keep your key with you at all times. Replacements cost $50 per key.

Natural Gas

If you smell natural gas, leave the apartment. Do not use a light switch, telephone, or cell phone. Immediately report the issue to housing staff.

Fire

Tornado

All Scott Campus residents will be notified of a tornado warning via the Campus Wide Paging System speaker in every apartment. SV students should go to the lower level of the SV Clubhouse. SC/SX students should go to the tornado shelter located on the first floor of each building. SRH residents should go to the northwest hallwall on the first floor.

UNO Lockdown

In the event of a hostile or emergency situation on campus or in the surrounding community, the university may enact "Shelter in Place." In this situation, the Campus Wide Paging System would instruct all members of the campus community to stay in place. All residents and staff members should follow the directions given through the broadcast system.
